Collection of Information

In order to properly underwrite and administer your insurance coverage and other programs and benefits, we must collect a certain amount of necessary and helpful information. The amount and type of information collected may vary depending on the products, services, and benefits, but in general, NMB may collect the following categories of personal information about you:

- The information you provide on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, social security number, salary, etc.
- Information about your transactions with us, such as your contract coverage, premium payment history, and other such information.

You are our most important source of information, but we may also collect or verify information by contacting medical professionals and institutions which have provided care to you or members of your family proposed for coverage, employers and business associates, friends and neighbors, and other insurance companies you have applied to. We may collect information by exchanges of correspondence, by phone, or by personal contact. In addition, your NMB agent may collect information intended to aid in the updating and improvement of your insurance program.

In some cases, we may ask an insurance support organization to collect information and submit an investigative consumer report to us. That organization may retain a copy of the report and may disclose its contents to others for whom it performs such services.
